Sabina Witt gets together with four exceptional musicians to create an original repertoire based on Eric Satie's music and poetry (1822-1925). Chiquilladas pintorescas is a universe of fantasy which gathers several resources from swing, the French chanson and impressionism, among others. As a result, their work seems a delicate creation carefully woven combined with texts and a great sound.

To anyone: Reading the text aloud is forbidden during the performance. Petulant offenders will make me feel very angry. They won't have any privilege.

Yes, this is a warning from Satie.
